

Wild Willow Farm, a project of
Resource Conservation District of Greater San Diego
11769 Waterhill Rd., Lakeside, CA 92040
Phone: (619) 562-0096 🌻 Fax: (619) 562-4799
Website: www.rcdsandiego.org

Certification Programs at Wild Willow Farm

Certification “Farming 101 Intensive Course”

After successful completion of Farming 101, you may request a certification showing you have completed this course.

- Farming 101: Introduction to Small-Scale Farming

Certification “Principles of Ecological Farming”

To obtain your certificate in Urban Sustainable Farming, you must complete the following:

- Farming 101: Introduction to Small-Scale Farming
- Farming 102: Plant Families & Growing Seasonal Crops
- Holistic Orchard Care

Certification “Small-Scale Production Farming”

To obtain your certificate in Urban Sustainable Farming, you must complete the following:

- Farming 101: Introduction to Small-Scale Farming
- Farming 102: Plant Families & Growing Seasonal Crops
- Beekeeping 101 – 103
- Holistic Orchard Care
- Completion of 150 hours of volunteer internship

Once you complete any of these programs please email sierra.reiss@rcdsandiego.org for a physical copy of your certificate.